HOW FRESH IS YOUR BREAD?

If you are still buying your bread at the grocery or even at a "bread" store down the street, do you really know when the wheat was milled? Did you know that when the words "fresh baked" are used, many times it just means that the dough was prepared someplace else. It's frozen, then trucked to the store to be "fresh baked"? If you actually want FRESH bread then you want us! Our wheat is milled daily in the store to provide the fresh flour used in our breads and treats. All of our baked goods are prepared by hand. It doesn't get any fresher! You owe it to yourself to eat the best!

COCONUT BATTER BREAD

A staff favorite! This basic quick bread is chocked full of coconut and sweet coconut extract. Use it for the base of a strawberry shortcake for a twist on a classic dessert.

Available daily in April.
